APPEAL FOR ARTICLES OF CLOTHING.

Some few years since a Mission was commenced by some of our Missionary Brethren in British Guiana, for the special benefit of the Aboriginal Indians. The little Church and Congregation at this Settlement, called Maria Henrietta, and which is situated about 200 miles up the river Berbice, has been placed under the charge of Mr. J. McArthur, a Native Agent. From a recent statement of Mr. McArthur it appears that many of the Indians in his Congregation are in very destitute circumstances, and without the means of providing themselves with decent clothing. The Directors will therefore feel much obliged to any kind friends who may have it in their power to furnish, for the use of these interesting objects of Christian benevolence, a few of the most necessary articles of male and female attire, and which, on their being sent to the Mission House, shall be duly forwarded to Mr. McArthur.

NOTICE.

At the request of the Rev. George Turner, the respected Superintendent of the Mission Seminary in the Samoan Islands, Polynesia, we have much pleasure in recording a signal instance of Christian liberality on the part of the Sunday School Children connected with the Rev. F. Miller's Church and Congregation at Hobart Town, Tasmania:—

"The Children of the Sunday Schools in connexion with the Rev. F. Miller's Congregation, Brisbane, St. Hobart Town, have undertaken the entire expenditure connected with the Samoan Mission Seminary. The Institution at present contains sixty eight young men under training for the work of the Ministry, who, together with their wives and children, and a select class of youths, form a population on the premises of upwards of two hundred and fifty individuals. The agricultural habits of the natives are kept up, and the Institution thereby made, as far as practicable, self supporting. There is still, however, an annual expenditure for Clothing, Tools, Medicine, and Stationery, of some £50, and that sum, the children of the Schools just referred to have nobly determined to meet."

Contributions in aid of the Society will be thankfully received by Sir Culling Eardley Eardley, Bart., Treasurer, and Rev. Ebenezer Prout, at the Mission House, Blomfield-street, Finsbury, London; by Mr. W. F. Watson, 52, Princes-street, Edinburgh; Robert Goodwin, Esq., 235, George-street, and Religious Institution Rooms, 12, South Hanover-street, Glasgow; and by Rev. John Hands, Society House, 32, Lower Abbey-street, Dublin. Post-Office Orders should be in favour of Rev. Ebenezer Prout, and payable at the General Post Office.
